Viewing Documents on Civil Cases: Attorneys who have an appearance on the case can view pleadings, orders and other documents that are paperless by selecting the document link below. Any attorney without an appearance on the case can look at court orders and judicial notices that are electronic on this case by choosing the link next to the order or selecting "Notices" from the tab at the top of this page and choosing the link to the notice on this website. Pleadings and other documents that are paperless can be viewed during normal business hours at any Judicial District courthouse and at many geographical area courthouses. Any pleadings or documents that are not paperless can be viewed during normal business hours at the Clerk's Office in the Judicial District where the case is. Some pleadings, orders and other documents are protected by court order and can be seen at the Clerk's Office in the Judicial District where the case is only by attorneys or parties on the case.

Judicial ADR events may be heard in a court that is different from the court where the case is filed. To check location information about an ADR event, select the Notices tab on the top of the case detail page.

Short Calendar and family support magistrate calendar matters are shown as scheduled court dates. If there are multiple motions on a single short calendar, the calendar will be listed once. You can see more information on matters appearing on short calendars and family support magistrate calendars by going to the Civil/Family Case Look-Up page and Short Calendars By Juris Number or By Court Location.

Periodic changes to terminology that do not affect the status of the case may be made. This list does not constitute or replace official notice of scheduled court events.

Disclaimer: For civil and family cases statewide, case information can be seen on this website for a period of time, from one year to a maximum period of ten years, after the disposition date. If the Connecticut Practice Book Sections 7-10 and 7-11 give a shorter period of time, the case information will be displayed for the shorter period. Under the Federal Violence Against Women Act of 2005, cases for relief from physical abuse, foreign protective orders, and motions that would be likely to publicly reveal the identity or location of a protected party may not be displayed and may be available only at the courts.
